  - International funds are unused, however an event could be planned for the autumn where the budget in question would be used. Precise budgeting will be done in the next meeting when the event has been planned.

9. Organizational matters

- The Chair will attend TREY's annual celebration on the 16th of October 2021.

- YTY will possibly arrange an event during for the wellbeing week. Due to target group being social and health sciences students, it is deemed not to cause a disadvantage if the event information would not reach TREY by the deadline. The planning of the wellbeing event is mainly the duty of the new event official.
- YTY's tutor officials part-took in the interdisciplinary freshmens' event Fuksiseikkailu by holding a checkpoint.
- The international affairs officials will gather the international officials together to plan the upcoming international event.
- YTY was present in Cortex's organisation information event in September alongside participating in a meeting to introduce YTY to Cortex's members.
- A project launched in the spring 2021 concerning the university's anti-harrassment petition, has advanced slowly, the upcoming socio-political official will likely help with the project. In addition the safe space principles have been in the forming and a meeting will likely be held with the new socio-political official in October.
- YTY considers holding a planning evening for the five-year-strategy and Equality Plan for the Board and officials in the autumn.

10. Education policy matters

- Halloped informational event was arranged with TREY and the event went well.
- Additionally more activity is planned for the hallopedes.

11. Communications

- Feedback form
  - Contact was made concerning the Defending Linna (Linnasta ei luovuta) project. In the feedback's writer wishes for YTY to inform more about the matter. YTY thanks for the feedback!
